CENTENNIAL PRODUCTS ARE AVAILABLE, TOO!

Celebrate the centennial of the occupational therapy profession with hand-picked products that express your OT pride! Each item features a centennial logo designed exclusively for this historic occasion. See page 13 for some examples of available items.

Celebrate occupational therapy throughout April and all year by sharing the value of your profession through special events, messages, and products.

Here are a few ideas to share with your colleagues and come up with even more. Find more at www.aota.org/otmonth.

1. Share AOTA's "Living Life To Its Fullest" podcast series, aimed at educating consumers about the profession, with your current and potential clients. Episodes and archives can be found at www.aota.org/podcasts. Or create and share your own video on YouTube or OT Connections (OT Month Forum).
2. Ask your mayor (or work with your state association to ask your governor) to sign a proclamation honoring April as OT Month; then send out a press release right away announcing it to local media. For a sample proclamation and press release, go to www.aota.org/OTMonth.
3. Offer to speak to local groups such as area agencies on aging, or parent-teacher associations, Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, Rotary, etc., to let them know how occupational therapy services can help families in any number of ways. Use AOTA's presentation resources.
4. Open your facility for tours, OT practice demonstrations, or receptions to give others first-hand insight into what occupational therapy practitioners do.
5. Get permission to host an information booth about occupational therapy at the entrance to a college campus, local mall, or other location and be prepared to clearly explain the role of OT in a person's health and wellness.
6. Give out 2017 OT Month buttons, pencil grips, travel mugs, or other products to staff, clients, family members, or professional associates. Consider a shirt or tote bag as a premium gift.

7. Send a letter to the editor of your local newspaper or newsletter providing OT-based suggestions on ways to address a community issue (e.g., childhood obesity, aging in place, sensory issues).
8. Do you have a positive experience about OT to share? Contact your local newspaper, hospital, or health agency and see if the staff accepts guest bloggers or columnists. Readers love personal stories of triumph. AOTA can help you pitch your idea to reporters.
9. Sign your e-mails with a tag line that promotes public awareness, such as:
