NATIONAL HEALTHCARE SUPPLY CHAIN WEEK

October 4-10, 2015

National Healthcare Supply Chain Week (SC Week) is an opportunity to recognize and honor healthcare supply chain professionals for their exceptional contributions to the success of healthcare organizations. Begin planning your celebration activities now by ordering well-deserved gifts for your staff, colleagues, and friends.

The Association for Healthcare Resource & Materials Management (AHRMM) invites you to commemorate SC Week in 2015 with an exciting collection of new merchandise featuring the official 2015 logo and theme—Healthcare Supply Chain: Delivering Excellence.

In pursuit of delivering excellence, healthcare supply chain professionals have embraced the Cost, Quality, and Outcomes (CQO) Movement to lead the profession to operate from the intersection of cost, quality, and outcomes to meet the demands of the new healthcare delivery model.

By collaborating with cross functional departments, supply chain can integrate healthcare organizations towards optimal performance. Share the message of CQO with your colleagues in the hospital with merchandise featuring the CQO logo. To join the movement, visit www.ahrmm.org/CQO.

Browse our wide selection of specialty items to find something for everyone on your list—all at an affordable price!

Order by September 14 to ensure delivery by SC Week. Allow at least 2-3 weeks for regular delivery of in stock items. For rush delivery, please call Customer Service at (847) 963-8100.
